VALER HAROLD, Editor and Manager.

One hears it declared that Columbus is a slow town, but she disputed it Wednesday with one of the liveliest fires ever seen in the state.

There is talk that Secretary Alger is after General Miles' military scalp. The General is carrying a chip around on his shoulder, but the Secretary will be the last man to knock it off.

Mr. Gomez, of Cuba, has become quite amiable since Uncle Sam has put three million dollars within his reach. The Cuban patriot, like the brand elsewhere, very frequently wants to know "what there is in it?"

Judging from the references of our exchanges across the river to it, the prediction of The Times that the coming of Col. Chas. H. Jones, of St. Louis into the editorship of the Louisville Dispatch would make merry days in Kentucky journalism, is already being verified.

It may be a long time before this town sees the establishment of a new reservoir and sewer system and possesses many miles of paved streets, but the very agitation of them calls attention to the growth and importance of Portsmouth as a center of manufacture and population.

The Cincinnati Times-Star says Dewey has no experience in raising wrecks, like Hobson has. True enough, but both have experience in making wrecks. Dewey made his of Spanish ships at Manila, while Hobson made his of himself, as here and of maidenly modesty at every point in the country where he got his osculator in operation.

The Cincinnati papers devote so much space to scandal and crime that they do not know the difference between a wrong and a right. Every killing of a human being is to their limited knowledge murder. Yet it may be anything else, but that, as when a man takes life in the defense of his home, or a woman kills the assailer of her honor. Murder is the unjustifiable and inexcusable slaying of a fellowman; a justifiable slaying is homicide. In other words, murder is a black crime, homicide is frequently the supremest of virtues. The Cincinnati papers should hire a cheap lawyer to revise their copy.

MILES AND EAGAN.

There seems to be some misunderstanding about the position of The Times in the matter of the court martialing of General Eagan. Several persons have gotten the opinion from its editorial on the subject that it supports that unfortunate soldier in his controversy with General Miles. As a matter of fact, The Times believes the latter is right in his denunciation of the food furnished to the soldiers, while at the same time holding that General Eagan had no guilty knowledge that his underlings were grossly incompetent or corrupt, and the army contractors dishonest and criminal. The point it was trying to make is that the president had promised immunity to witnesses appearing before the investigating committee and since he had permitted General Miles to go before that committee and make the most serious charges against the commissary department, he ought not to permit the punishment and degradation of General Eagan, who was the responsible head of that department, for his testimony before the same commission, though his language in denouncing General Miles, a superior military officer, was certainly most unbecoming.

We insist that to plain people it is no greater crime in General Eagan to denounce General Miles as a liar for calling him a thief and a murderer than for General Miles to call General Eagan a thief and a murderer.

THE POINT OF VIEW.

One of The Times' ablest Republican contemporaries is very much shocked because, as it assumes, W. A. Clark, the new Democratic senator from Montana, used money to secure his election. If the principle involved were not so serious, and if the crime our contemporary inveighs against in the particular instance were not so general, its position would be amusing. It is a notorious fact that the buying of votes was carried on by wholesale by the Republican managers in 1896, and in other states than Montana Republican candidates for senator used money to secure election. On these our aforesaid contemporary maintains a boundless silence. Its protest against the corruption of the ballot, though lacking sincerity evidently, is timely. The crying out against the evil in the mere hope of partisan gain is not, however, a remedy; but some method of correction may eventually be found if honest people, and a fearless press will denounce it, wherever practiced.

Washington's Tomb.

Washington was buried in what is now known as the old vault, which is perhaps 200 feet away from his present resting place. Before his death he had requested that a new family vault be constructed after his decease, and the reason given for this is that the earth upon the side of the hill where the old vault was placed was likely to slip away in the springtime.

No attention was apparently paid to this request, however, until about 1830, when an employee who had been discharged from the estate broke into the old tomb as an act of revenge and stole a skull which he supposed to be that of George Washington. This he took to Alexandria, and, as usual in such cases, "got drunk," and so his secret was discovered, and the skull, which proved to be that of Laurence Washington instead, was returned.

This incident led to the final carrying out of the wish of General Washington. The tomb which is his present resting place was promptly built, and in 1831 his remains were removed to it. The old vault was allowed to fall into a state of decay, and only a few years ago it was restored by the aid of drawings found in the congressional library. An iron fence has been built around it, and it now receives the same care as the new tomb.—Exchange.

A Greek Colony in Corsica.

At Cargèse we have the remarkable spectacle of a Greek population with its own church settled down on the coast of Corsica. Our inn is kept by a Greek from Corfu, as his name, Corfotti, tells us and as the loquacity of his wife would lead us to infer; for at Cargèse the Corsican taciturnity has given place to the Hellenic love of talk. Rather more than two centuries ago a Greek settlement was founded in Corsica under the auspices of the Genoese republic, to which the island at that time belonged, and when the French came into possession of the country they established the Hellenic exiles, who had meanwhile founded the Chapelle des Grecs just outside Ajaccio at Cargèse and built them the church which they have ever since cherished.

Intermarriages between the colonists and the natives, at first rare, have now become frequent, and it is to be feared that the Greek language will soon become as extinct there as the fustanella. But with that wonderful tenacity which it shows in modern Greece, in spite of centuries of barbarian invasions and Turkish oppression, the Greek type is sure to remain at Cargèse to remind the traveler of its eternal youth and its unflinching characteristics.—Westminster Review.

Julius Caesar.

Of all great conquerors, writes Marion Crawford in "Studies From the Chronicles of Rome," he was the least cruel, for he never sacrificed human life without the direct intention of benefiting mankind by an increased social stability. Of all great lawgivers, he was the most wise and just, and the truths he set down in the Julian code are the foundation of modern justice. Of all great men who have leaped upon the world as upon an unbroken horse, who have guided it with relentless hands and ridden it breathlessly to the goal of glory, Caesar is the only one who turned the race into the track of civilization and, dying, left mankind a future in the memory of his past. He is the one great man of all without whom it is impossible to imagine history. We cannot take him away and yet leave anything of what we have. The world could have been as it is without Alexander, without Charlemagne, without Napoleon. It could not have been the world we know without Caius Julius Caesar.

For Insomnia.

A curious remedy for sleeplessness is used by the inhabitants of the Samoan islands. They confine a snake in a hollow bamboo, and the hissing sound emitted by the reptile is said to quickly induce slumber.

MRS. MOORE

Writes Interestingly of the Graded Sunday School.

They Are of More Benefit Than the Ordinary Sunday School—Her
Views on the Subject.

The graded Sabbath school is being seriously considered by many of our superintendents, and before many months pass will be introduced into our schools. It is necessary that the parents know the good that will come to their children by its adoption, so you will co-operate with the teachers in helping to make the work a success. The advantage it will be to our children is, in addition to the international lessons now taught, they will have a few questions and answers to learn each Sabbath that will increase their Bible knowledge. As a stimulus, they will be marked for their lessons as in the public schools, have examinations at the end of every quarter, and after passing a required number of grades will receive a diploma. Those from the primary class, when ready to pass into the large room, will receive a diploma for work done there. Children should not leave the primary class until they know the Lord's prayer, the ten commandments, the beatitudes, the twenty-third psalm, some of the beautiful hymns, such as "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," etc. In the other grades they should know the apostles' creed, the catechism, the outlines of the old testament history, outlines of the life of Christ, outlines of the lives and writings of the apostles, the memorizing of books of the old and new testament and their classification, and many other things. Is it not plain to parents after their children have reached such a training in Bible knowledge their love for the book of books and God our Maker would be increased? If our Sabbath schools fail in this, they are failures indeed. This is the kind of work up-to-date Sabbath schools are doing. Must Portsmouth be a back number? Ah, no, indeed! "I hear the parents say. 'We want our children to have as much Bible knowledge as any wide-awake children in the land.'" Since the first of January, 1899, the Christian church has graded its Sabbath school. The superintendent is very enthusiastic over the grand up-lifting it is going to be to increased Bible knowledge. Must we allow that school to be the only up-to-date one in our town? The coming Sabbath, February 5th, in All Saints church, you will have a fine opportunity to hear one of the state Sabbath school workers on the kindergarten work for the primary class. All parents should be interested enough to attend. Let us make the audience larger than the one in the German M. E. church at the last bi-monthly Sabbath school union. Parents usually are interested in what concerns their children so let us crowd All Saints audience room to its fullest capacity and show that we are not asleep upon the Sabbath school question.

I HAD CHILLS AND FEVER.

I Did Not Enjoy Life and Hardly Hoped to Get Well.

I Was Weak, Dizzy, Trembling, and Had Stomach Trouble.

Dr. Greene's Nervura Made Me Strong and Well, and Cured My Daughter.

Mrs. Albert Blanchard, 358 Webster Ave., Chicago, Ill., says:

"My health has been very poor for several years. I would have sinking spells and was so weak that I could not hold my hand up to my head. I would have to lie down on the sofa and was so very nervous that I could not sleep nights."

"My stomach troubled me all the time and my food distressed me so that I was afraid to eat. I had chills most of the time and sometimes chills and fever with trembling and shaking. I was also troubled with catarrh. I was so dizzy at times that I nearly fell; I would grab at the chair, and dark spots appeared before my eyes. I could not begin to tell how I suffered. I was so sick I did not enjoy life and was told that I would not live long. I was induced to take Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and after using six bottles I found it had done wonders for me. I now feel real strong and well and can walk a couple of miles. My stomach does not trouble me and I am not chilly. My catarrh has entirely disappeared."

"L. Greene's Nervura will cure you—try it. Besides you can at any time consult without charge with Dr. Greene, 143 State St., Chicago, Ill., whether you call or write about your case."

To Give Up Every Vice.

"Well, sir," demanded Horatio Ballou, "what particular reason have you to offer for asking me to let you have my daughter Gladys?"

"I—I love her, and she loves me."

Reginald Biddlethwaite replied.

"Oh, of course," the blunt old magistrate retorted. "I've heard that song from half a dozen others. That's to be taken for granted. But what other qualifications have you?"

"I must confess," the trembling young man answered, "that I am not rich, but I can truthfully say that I have no expensive habits. I don't drink. I don't gamble. I don't chew tobacco. I don't smoke. I don't—"

"Hold on!" the millionaire broke in. "That's enough! You'll do. Your board and clothes won't cost much more than the gas you've been burning lately. What I object to is supporting fellows like my other three sons-in-law, who have all the faults you say you have not. I don't mind furnishing the husbands of my daughters with the necessities of life, but I do hate to have to settle the bills for their luxuries. Now, there is just one other point I want to have settled before I give my consent."

"What is that?" Mr. Biddlethwaite eagerly asked.

"Promise me that you will not start a newspaper. The others have all tried it, and I can't stand many more such experiences."

Reginald's promise made three hearts happy.—Cleveland Leader.

Vaseline Pancakes.

Cesar's creek, on the Florida coast, was named after a famous old pirate called Black Cesar, whose profession added to the risks of marine insurance. After the pirates the Florida wreckers came, of whom H. A. Willoughby, in his "Across the Everglades," tells this story:

A large steamer was stranded on the reef not far from Cape Florida. No sooner had she struck than the news spread rapidly along the shore. The people for 20 miles around gathered on the beach opposite the stranded steamer. Among them were a number of Indians from the Everglades, who chanced to be down there and knew what a "wreck" meant to the wreckers.

The steamer, loaded with an assorted cargo, began to break up, and barrels, cases and boxes drifted gradually ashore. There were cases of wine, boxes of soap, cases of bottles of wine and iron and a hundred other articles. The Indians seized upon the wine and soon were in a condition that allowed the white men to secure the more valuable prizes.

The squaws struck a bonanza in a case of vaseline. They thought it a new variety of the white man's frying fat and, starting a fire, fried pancakes in it. What a dish—pancakes a la Seminole!

"Ladies and gentlemen," said an Irish manager to an audience of three, "as there is nobody here, I'll dismiss you all. The performance of this night will not be performed, but will be repeated tomorrow evening."

Eggs from Australia are landed in London in such perfect preservation that they are sold as new laid.

She speaks in a natural manner, using voice and gestures as her emotions command. Her powers of imitation are not the least of her gifts. She was received with applause and responded to several encores.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

BOX OF CIGARS

Gave Nate Gilliland a Nervous Chill Today.

He Thought Somebody Was Going to Dynamite Him and Would Not Open the Box—Court News.

Deputy Judge Gilliland was taken by surprise this morning. A messenger came in with a suspicious looking package, marked "Judge Gilliland." Fortunately several men of nerve from the rural districts were in the office and at the request of the Judge one of them broke the seal and brought to light a box of fine cigars, of Doerr Bros.' best brand. The Judge then wondered if they were loaded. A test was made by the reporters who happened to be present and the Judge concluded if they would not kill a reporter they were O. K., and he was thankful to the anonymous sender.

Attorneys Searl and Miller filed a petition in which the Farmers' bank of Mt. Sterling is plaintiff and James M. Garlinger and Ed. Pickering are defendants. The suit is brought to recover money on a promissory note given by Garlinger and endorsed by Pickering for the amount of $211.80. James M. Garlinger is a resident of this county. Ed. Pickering is a resident of Fayette county.

Attorney Frank B. Finney filed a petition in which Eliza Thomas is plaintiff and Thomas B. Lawson is defendant. The first cause of action in this case is to recover money on a promissory note. The amount is $375. The second cause of action is to recover money on a promissory note amounting to $800. The amount of claim for judgment is $1,375. The plaintiff in this case is a resident of Meigs county. Charles C. Benedict, an attorney of Cincinnati, is also interested in this case in behalf of plaintiff.

Successful Balloon Ascension
Took Place Today.

But Professor Cassell Came Very Near
Landing in the River—The Times
Was Right With Him.

A large crowd gathered at the corner of Fourth and Chillicothe streets this morning to witness the balloon ascension, announced to take place at 10 o'clock. It was 11:30 before the word was received by the attaches to "let 'er go."

Professor Cassell grabbed the bar. Holding on with one hand, he waved adieu to the crowd.

As on his former aerial journey, he took with him his little dog "Fritz," and just as he was about to sail, was handed a marked copy of The Times, which, when he was at the highest point of his journey he threw to the winds. He cut loose the dog at a height of about 1,000 feet and the animal came down slowly, landing on East Front street. The balloon sailed in a southeasterly direction and went over 3,000 feet. When at its greatest height the parachute was detached and Prof. Cassell leaped out into space. He came down slowly, landing in a vacant lot at the corner of Front and Union streets. For a time it looked as though the professor would land in the river.

The balloon fell in the street near where Cassell landed. A wagon gathered up the Professor and his balloon and carried the whole outfit to the Safford hotel.

THE SOCIAL MEETING

Of the High School Senior Class
Held Yesterday Evening

At Seel's Parlors—Mr. and Mrs. George
Kilgore and Daughter Entertain—
Theatre Parties—Social News.

Last evening, at Seel's parlors, Misses Maud Shepherd, Lillian Henkel and Lucy Graham were the hostesses of the monthly social meeting of the High school senior class. Among the evening's pleasures were the following: A guessing contest, called "Small boy's flowers," a graphophone, "An impromptu literary circle," in which everyone had to respond with a selection, no matter how simple. The result was very amusing.

About half-past ten o'clock lunch was served. In the dining-room the class colors, blue and gold, were predominant. The cream was blue and gold. The favors were booklets tied with blue and gold ribbon. On the cover was the class motto, "Labor omnia vincit." Within the cover was a short stanza written by Maud Shepherd and dedicated to the class of '99.

Mr. Streich was called upon for a toast, which was responded to by Miss Kate Anderson, president of the class, and May Winter, secretary.

After luncheon an "impromptu cake walk" was given by the gentlemen members of the class.

The guests of honor were the teachers of the Portsmouth High school, Miss Bessie Whitney, of Cincinnati, and Miss Lizzie Ferguson, of South Point.

Just preceding the departure for home Prof. Streich invited the A class and their guests to accompany him to the Grand this afternoon to see "The Bohemian Girl." It is needless to say the invitation was enthusiastically accepted.

The third lecture of the series for the benefit of the reading rooms will be delivered by Dr P. J. Kline next Monday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, in the lecture room of the First Presbyterian church. His topic is "Heroes and Heroines of Medicine."

During her stay in this city Miss Mary E. Hutcheson, of Columbus, who will be the principal speaker at the Sunday school institute tomorrow afternoon at All Saints parish, will be entertained at the home of Dr. and Mrs. S. S. Halderman, of East Sixth street.

Among the theater parties of last evening was one composed of the following East Second street residents: Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Reilly and sisters, Misses Kate, Sarah and Marian, Mrs. Abner West, Mrs. J. A. Turley, Miss Julia Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Adams and guest, Miss Belle Cummings, of Louisville, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kilgore and daughter, Miss Etta, entertained with cards Thursday evening for the pleasure of their guest, Mrs. Leila King, of Spokane, Washington. The prizes were won by the guest of honor and her cousin, Miss Jennie Beatty, of Waller street. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. John Allen, Mr. and Mrs. John Kilgore, Misses Emma and Carrie Beatty, Mame, Bertha and Lillie Mantel, Kate Arnold, Lillie Lockbaum, May Henry, Grace Cook, Messrs. Grant Westman, Simon Balchert, Chas. Reed. Among the pleasures of the evening was piano music by Miss Kate Arnold, a talented musician.

Calvary commandery No. 13, Knight Templars, will entertain with a reception at the asylum on Tuesday evening, February 14th. A pleasant time is expected. Will S. Schwartz, Robert G. Bryan and L. W. Baker are the committee.

The history department of the woman's club entertained yesterday afternoon at All Saints chapel with the following program: "Cervantes"—Mrs. J. W. Overturf, "Velasquez and Murilla"—Miss Margaret Sellards.

Piano solo—Miss Mame Reed.
"Social Customs and Amusements"—
Mrs. L. S. Robertson.
"Spanish Music"—Miss Julia Tappan.

OBITUARY.

REED.

Harvin, the one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Reed, of Pond Run, died on Thursday, of grip. The funeral took place this afternoon, the interment being in Brown's graveyard.

WILL DELAY TRIAL.

Attorneys For Mrs. Anna E. George Enter a Plea In Abatement.

Canton, O., Feb. 4.—Judge Taylor overruled the motion to quash the indictment against Mrs. Anne E. George. Mrs. George was attired in a dark blue suit, having light blue silk in front of the waist. She was hatless, placed both arms on the lawyer's table, leaned forward and looked straight at Judge Taylor during the rendering of the opinion. Then she leaned back in her chair. She appeared in good spirits, and when the decision was announced seemed in no way affected. She had been informed by her attorneys that the motion would probably be overruled.

The proceedings virtually amounted to a postponement of the actual hearing of the woman charged with the murder of George D. Saxton until March or later. The plea in abatement of which notice was given after the motion to quash had been overruled and the decision objected to, may be filed in a few days, but it will not be argued until week after next.

While the attorneys say they want the trial as early as possible to relieve Mrs. George of suspense, there is much to indicate a desire on their part to delay proceedings and have the case passed into a late time of court.

Potteries to Be Transferred.

Cincinnati, Feb. 4.—The consolidation of the Mattock company of Trenton, N. Y., and the American Potteries company has cleared the way for Cincinnati potteries. Now the formal absorption by their joint company of the Cincinnati concerns is only a matter of a few days. Judge Samuel Smith allowed the Cincinnati potteries further time to answer in the case which the Bell company has filed to prevent the combine in Ohio.

Monnet at Marietta.

Marietta, O., Feb. 4.—Attorney General Monnet, who has been taking evidence all over in Ohio in his proceedings against the Standard Oil company, began taking testimony here at the Bellevue Hotel in connection with other attorneys. What is considered sensational as well as material testimony was taken from the refiners here, who testify not only to being closed out, but also to being persecuted by the Standard.

Big Sale of Bourbon.

Cincinnati, Feb. 4.—There was one sale of 3,500 barrels of Kentucky bourbon at an advance of 2½ cents advance per gallon. The largest purchases ever known here prevailed. There was such excitement among the brokers and dealers at the close of business that all the Cincinnati dealers telegraphed instructions to their traveling men not to take any more orders until they were notified.

Helmiller's Theory of Fire.

Columbus, O., Feb. 4.—Fire Chief Helmiller is quoted as saying that he believes Wednesday night's $600,000 fire was of incendiary origin. The fire started in the Dunlap building, which was totally destroyed, with an estimated loss of $75,000. The police are investigating.

Stores Burglarized.

Newport, O., Feb. 4.—Burglars raided two stores, robbed the postoffice, a blacksmith shop and spent a merry time for several hours in the school-house here. The stores robbed were those of O. P. Davis and John Petty.

Southern Freight Association.

Cincinnati, Feb. 4.—The traffic managers reached an agreement to form a southern freight classification association. About 15 roads were represented.

Broke His Nose.

Delaware, O., Feb. 4.—Homer Moffat pitched headlong down the slippery steps of his residence, broke his nose and two teeth.

DOTS AND DASHES.

Many Important Facts Stated In a Few Words as Possible.

Coal famine is feared at Leadville, Col.

Gaensslen block at Cleveland gutted by fire. Loss $75,000.

Stewart cracker plant at Philadelphia burned. Loss $500,000.

Sylvester Devine was shot by an Italian cobbler at Columbus, O.

James Brown, engineer at the Washington C. H. water works, died suddenly at his post.

Mrs. Katherine Shirley has sent an attorney to Boston to claim the $2,000,000 Stetson estate.

Hepburn Nicaragua canal bill, with amendments, was substituted in the house for the Morgan bill.

Senate adopted a joint resolution to erect a $10,000 monument in Havana in memory of the victims of the Maine.

A wagon of household goods with six people was struck by a Baltimore and Ohio train near McKeesport, Pa. All fatally injured.

The house committee on judiciary has decided that the members of the house who accepted commissions in the army vacated their seats.

BADLY HURT

Was John Bradshaw Late
This Afternoon.

One of the Supports of the Balloon
Fell on Him

Crushing Him to the Earth—It Is Feared That His Injuries Will Prove Fatal.

John Bradshaw, who lives on West Third street, was badly hurt while watching the balloon ascension about 4 o'clock this afternoon.

He was standing on Fourth street, just above Win Nye's drug store. One of the big poles used to support the balloon fell.

Young Bradshaw was directly in the way and could not escape. The pole struck him and crushed him to the earth.

He was carried into Win Nye's drug store in an unconscious condition and several physicians summoned.

His injuries are serious and it is feared he will not recover.

Beau Nash as a Gambler.

When the late Earl of T—d was a youth, he was passionately fond of play and never better pleased than with having Mr. Nash for his antagonist. Nash saw with concern his lordship's foible and undertook to cure him, though by a very disagreeable remedy. Conscious of his own superior skill he determined to engage him in single play for a very considerable sum. His lordship, in proportion as he lost his game, lost his temper, too, and as he approached the gulf seemed still more eager for ruin.

He lost his estate. Some writings were put into the winner's possession. His very equipage was offered as a last stake, and he lost that also. But when our generous gamester had found his lordship sufficiently punished for his temerity he returned all, only stipulating that he should be paid £5,000 whenever he should think proper to make the demand. However, he never made any such demand during his lordship's lifetime, but some time after his decease, Mr. Nash's affairs being in (sic) the wane, he demanded the money of his lordship's heirs, who honorably paid it without any hesitation.—"History of Gambling in England."

It Was Ordered.

In the biography of Prince Bismarck it is said that when he was minister at St. Petersburg he was walking one morning in the summer garden and met the czar, who invited him to join him. Presently Bismarck noticed a sentry stationed in the middle of a large grass plot and asked the aid-de-camp, who in turn inquired of the sentry.

"It is ordered," was his reply.
Every official gave the same answer. "It is ordered," but nobody knew by whom. A sentry had always stood guard in the middle of that innocent grass plot. The archives were searched, but in vain. At last an aged official was found, who had been told by his father that the Empress Catherine had once seen a snowdrop ready to bloom in the spot, and had ordered a sentry to stand guard and allow no one to pluck it. For more than a century the watch had been maintained because "it was ordered," and no one had ever thought of disobeying or of questioning the reason of the order.

Red Hair the Best Wearer.

Why are redheaded people less subject to baldness than those with fair or brown hair? An English physician has answered this conundrum.

The hair of the redheaded is relatively thick, one red hair being as thick as five blond or three brown hairs. With 90,000 red hairs the scalp is well thatched. With the same number of blond hairs one is almost bald. It takes 160,000 blond and 105,000 brown hairs to cover adequately an ordinary head.

Moral Effect.

Mrs. Greene—Do you always give your little boy castor oil for a cold?

Mrs. Gray—Yes, I give it for its moral effect exclusively.

Mrs. Greene—For its moral effect?

Mrs. Gray—Yes, it will have an influence upon him not to catch another cold.—Boston Transcript.

Profit From a Whale.

The profit from a single whale that is captured is very large. One about 50 feet long weighs 140,000 pounds and will give 60,000 pounds of blubber, from which 48,000 pounds of train oil can be made and 3,000 pounds of whalebone.

PLEASED

Were People With "Said Pasha" Last Night

As Sung by the Boston Lyric Company —Will Present Fra Diavolo To-night—Theatrical Notes.

The Boston Lyric Opera company entertained a large audience at the Grand Friday night, notwithstanding the inclement weather, with a rendition of "Said Pasha." The choruses were particularly strong, and several of the soloists, notably Mr. Hallam and Miss Stanton, appeared to good advantage. The opera on the whole struck the popular fancy. The minor roles were also well sustained. The opera pleased, and there was much to commend in individual effort. The sextette was exceptionally fine and received several encores.

This afternoon the company rendered "The Bohemian Girl" to a large-sized audience, composed almost wholly of ladies. Tonight the company produces "Fra Diavolo," and already a good house is assured, judging from the large advance sale of seats.

Tuesday evening the "Uncle Josh Spruceby" company appears at the Grand. The parade at noon of the military and bay-seed bands will be a feature.

"The Late Mr. Early" follows on Saturday evening, February 11th. The press everywhere speaks in highest terms of this play, and that it will be an extra good attraction there can be no doubt.

Richard & Twinkle's minstrels are booked for February 21st.

Yale's spectacular extravaganza, "The Evil Eye," will come in all its wealth of scenery and mechanical effects on February 25th. This company is a large and good one, much on the order of "The Twelve Temptations," and is replete with novel and startling novelties, a good chorus and ballet.

"Fabio Roman" is underlined for February 28th. The company has appeared here in years past and is a good one and deservedly popular. With the stage at the present opera house the production can be put on with excellent effect.

Murray & Mack, the well known comedians who have often appeared here in "Finnegan's Ball," will come again on March 1st.

Order for New Engines.

The Norfolk & Western has just placed an order with the Baldwin locomotive works for the erection of ten new engines, which are to be delivered by March 1st.

LIVE NOTES

Concerning People Well Known Here Taken from the Hamden Enterprise.

George E. Gibbs, postal clerk on the mail train, kept tab coming up on Wednesday on how cold the thermometer registered at different points between Portsmouth and Hamden the night before, and in order to show the variation in the fifty-six-mile run, we herewith give the report as Ed. jotted down the figures: Upon inquiry, he learned the thermometer registered 8 degrees below at Portsmouth; South Webster, 21; Elfort, 15; Samsonville, 16; Oak Hill, 20; Caba, 14; Jackson, 18; Wellston, 12, and at Hamden 18 below.

Phil. Ruhlman, fireman on the Portsmouth mail train, has been off duty the past few days on account of the serious illness of his stepfather, Rev. J. P. A. Dickey.

Mrs. L. A. Lodwick, of Portsmouth, was a guest at the American house last Sunday, while on her way to Marietta to see her sister, who is lying very ill at her home in that city.

BEHIND THE BARS.

A Gentleman Who Was Going to Be Very Kind to County Officials.

A few days ago a citizen of the rural districts, who possibly had never been at the court house before, was called in as a witness. In walking through the hall he noticed the bars on the treasury office doors. Having heard of prisoners behind the bars, he was soon studying the make-up of the inmates of the office, "Deacon" Tracy, Lou Tatman and the lady clerk. Accosting a passerby, he asked, "What are these people in jail for?" The passerby caught the cue and answered, "Some for murder and others for stealing." After cycling them for a minute, he said, "That man with the spectacles and cap looks like a bad man. I reckon he is the murderer."

CAKE WALK ITEM.

Telegraph Editor of the Post Says No Such Item Was Ever Published.

Some time ago quite a commotion was raised by some members of Allen chapel over an article which they alleged was published in the Cincinnati Post, stating that members of the church would give a cake walk. The local correspondent of The Post did not send any such item, and did not see it in that paper. A letter to the telegraph editor of The Post brings the reply that he has no recollection of any such item being published and that furthermore he does not think such an item was published. It will now be in order for the persons here to produce their evidence that The Post published this item.

Miss Grimshaw's Condition.

Miss Maud Grimshaw, whose serious illness has been frequently mentioned in the Republican, is reported to be considerably better today. She passed a restful night Thursday night, and every symptom is apparently better. Her aunts, Mrs. Ewing and Miss Ella Stewart, of Beaver Falls, Pa., and her brother, Otto Grimshaw, of Columbus, are here.

Miss Grimshaw is a former resident of Portsmouth, where she has many friends who will be pleased to learn that she is on the road to recovery.

A SUDDEN SHIFT.

New Tactics of Advocates of Peace Treaty.

WANT TO VOTE ON RESOLUTIONS.

The erstwhile Opponents of the Interpretive Declarations of the Paris Agreement seek to have a True Fixed For Voting, but the Other Side Declare It Is Too Late.

Washington, Feb. 4.—The discussion over the resolutions interpretive of the Paris agreement reached a climax.

The controversy was in the executive session, which did not occur until 5:15 p. m. The next hour and a quarter was spent in a vain endeavor on the one side to get an agreement to a date for a vote upon the resolutions, and on the other in a more successful effort to bring the day's session to a close without allowing anything to be accomplished in that direction.

No sooner had the gallery doors been locked than Senator Davis, who had taken his position at Senator Frye's seat, immediately in front of the chair, proffered the request of the treaty supporters for unanimous consent, naming Saturday as the day for a vote. He said that the desire on his side of the chamber was that there should be an opportunity to vote upon all the resolutions of a declaratory nature, all of which had been offered by senators who were opposed to the treaty without a modification.

The other side were prepared for the request, but it did not fail to create some excitement. Simultaneous objection was made from three or four sources, but as if by common consent to Senator Gorman was left the task of making the principal statement of the reasons for the opposition. His main objection was based upon the brief time that must intervene between the time of taking the vote on the resolutions and the time fixed for voting on the treaty—3 o'clock next Monday.

An essential part of the demand of those who desired a modification of the expression in the treaty was that the house as well as the senate must act upon the resolutions.

Manifestly it was too late to secure a vote by the house, even if the action of the senate should be favorable. Hence the absurdity of the proposition. Senator Cockrell gave notice that he would resist any effort for a vote upon the resolutions up to 3 o'clock Monday, when the vote on the treaty must be taken.

Advocates of the treaty claimed that they were acting in perfect good faith. They cited that all the time of the senate for the past week had been occupied in performing duties under the orders or consent of the senate and that there had not been within that period a time a vote could have been taken.

Money Talks and Daniel Likewise.

Washington, Feb. 4.—For more than five hours the senate listened to arguments in opposition to expansion and in opposition to the ratification of the treaty of peace. The speakers were Mr. Money (Miss.) and Mr. Daniel (Va.). The former's address was comparatively brief as he did not enter into the constitutional phases of the question. He vigorously antagonized the ratification of the treaty, holding that by such action the Filipinos would be admitted to the union as citizens, and if they were not capable of self-government we did not want them. Mr. Daniel made an exhaustive argument, in which he covered all the points in controversy. His speech was a brilliant oratorical effort, his picture of the situation in the Philippines and his peroration, in which he appealed to his colleagues not to depart from the history and traditions of the American nation, were beautiful specimens of eloquent English.

Will Submit Reports.

Washington, Feb. 4.—Chairman Hepburn says his report on the Nicaraguan canal bill will be filed on Monday. His plan is to ask the committee on rules to consider the measure. This is not likely to be next week, as many other measures are pressing for attention and are regarded as having priority. Mr. Mann gave notice that he would make a minority report.

All Acquitted.

New York, Feb. 4.—The 13 members of the Passaic county board of freeholders, on trial before Judge Barkalow, in Patterson, N. J., for malfeasance in office, were acquitted. They were indicted for giving to a Detroit firm the contract for a new bridge over West street at a price alleged to have been much higher than that of other bidders.

Dr. Carbonell Resigns.

San Juan, Porto Rico, Feb. 4.—Owing to the general dissatisfaction with the conduct of the department of the interior by Dr. Carbonell, the secretary of the department, Major General Henry, has called for his resignation, which has been tendered and accepted.

Two Plants Secured.

Wheeling, Feb. 4.—The billet combine, being promoted by Moore Brothers of Chicago, organizers of the tin plate combine, has practically secured control of the Aetna Standard Iron and Steel company, with its large plants at Aetna and Mingo Junction.

Sanitary Condition Improved.

Washington, Feb. 4.—Secretary Alger has received a telegram from General Ludlow, governor of the city of Havana, showing a greatly improved sanitary condition in that city.

Last summer I had company, a man and his wife. The man's hands and face had dry, scaly scales on them, and his head was covered, his hair being full of white scales. His wife said, "Some morning she would find a tablespoonful in the bed." I asked him, "Why don't you cure yourself?" He said, "I would give a hundred dollars to be cured. I have paid out a lot of money, but don't get cured." I told him, "I would cure him for less than that," and told him to get CUTICURA remedies. I did not see him for some time after, and then he suddenly shouted: "I am cured. CUTICURA has done it."

The Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern Railway, always awake to the comfort of its patrons, have just added to their already handsome equipment, six luxurious new Sleeping Cars, to be operated in connection with its renowned "Royal Blue Train" between the above named cities. For elegance and comfort this new product of the Pullman Co. surpasses all past records. The cars, while not on the elaborate order of the latest and most improved design, and plainly show the inventive genius of these workmen.

The cars are named "Clement," "Elihu," "Montgomery," "Bismarck," "Elkton," "Cincinnati," "Washington," "Baltimore," "Philadelphia," and "New York."

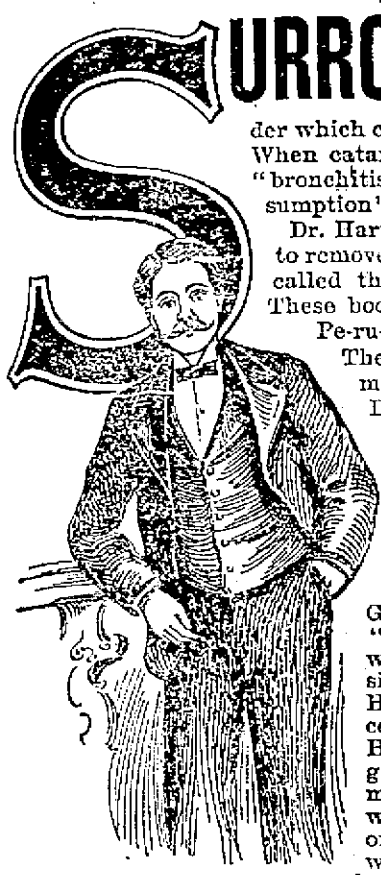

They are of the thirty-five ton class, with six-wheel truck, Pintch gas system, and are painted the Pullman standard color on the outside.

The cars have twelve sections, a drawing room and smoking room, and the interior is California red-wood, highly polished and beautifully inlaid. Mistaken Methods.

Plucking catarrh out by the roots the only way to cure it.—Local treatment always harmful.

catarrh with mystery has hidden many errors. The names under which catarrh passes have also helped to mystify. When catarrh reaches the bronchial tubes it is called "bronchitis"; if it gets to the lungs it is named "consumption"; and in the stomach it is "indigestion."

Dr. Hartman has done more than any other person to remove the mystery from catarrh. Get his books called the "Ills of Life," or "Chronic Catarrh." These books are mailed free, on application to the Pe-ru-na Medicine Co., Columbus, O.

They show the evil results of local treatment, and explain the scientific action of Dr. Hartman's great remedy Pe-ru-na, which has a forty years' record of success. Pe-ru-na makes the system throw off every catarrhal affection; it brings normal action to the nerves and blood. It thus makes healthy membranes and drives out every phase of catarrh.

"I had catarrh for five years," writes Mr. G. W. Shields, McKinney, Texas (box 26). "It got so bad that I could not do a day's work. I was so poor and weak that my physicians could do me no good. Seeing Dr. Hartman's name in the leading papers concerning catarrh induced me to write to him. He sent me instructions how to cure it. I got Pe-ru-na and Man-a-lin, and improved more with every bottle I took. My blood was in such a bad condition that I also took one bottle of La-cu-pi-a. I regained my usual weight and all the symptoms of catarrh left."

I recommend Pe-ru-na for all those who suffer from chronic catarrh. Those who have been cured of serious catarrhal trouble by Pe-ru-na, after everything else has failed, are anxious to help others. Thousands of letters are constantly being received in similar vein to that of Mr. Shields. Men of national fame give Pe-ru-na their endorsement.

Letters addressed to Dr. Hartman, president of the Surgical Hotel, Columbus, O., consulting him about catarrhal troubles, will receive his personal attention and reply without charge.

TO MAKE INQUIRY

Into Matters Growing Out of the Late War.

CHARGES OF MILES ABOUT MEAT.

As Soon as the War Investigation Board Has Reported the President Will Give the Commanding General of the Army a Chance to Tell Officially All He Knows About Embalmed Beef.

Washington, Feb. 4.—A formal inquiry will be made into the army meat controversy.

The president's purpose to terminate the unsatisfactory state of affairs that has existed for some time as the result of the numerous charges and counter-charges and interviews respecting the character of the army beef, by instituting a formal inquiry into these matters and endeavoring to place the responsibility where it belongs, has been made known.

The investigation will not be started before the commission to investigate the conduct of the war has made its report to the president. The scope of this new inquiry has not been defined, but it is certain will embrace the allegations made by General Miles as to the character of the army supplies, and will involve that officer to the extent that he must make these charges good and to that degree will be on trial himself in a preliminary manner. Should the charges be found well established a heavy responsibility would be placed upon the packers and persons concerned in the meat inspection, and perhaps others; should they fall unsupported, General Miles may be obliged to answer to a court-martial for reflecting upon the character of other officers.

Two methods are existing by which such an investigation may be conducted according to established military usage. The first is by the appointment of a court of inquiry, and the second by the appointment of what is known as an officer's or inspection board. In the former case, it would be necessary to name some officer who is to be the subject of the investigation. In the latter the board is charged simply to inquire into a state of facts, or alleged facts, without reference to any particular person, and to place responsibility if possible for anything of which complaint is made. Their findings may serve as the base for a court-martial quite as effectually as the findings of a court of inquiry.

Miles Declines to Talk.

Washington, Feb. 4.—General Miles was questioned regarding the reported statements that he had denied the accuracy of the interview concerning beef furnished to the army, which was published while on his recent visit to New York. He courteously declined to be drawn into any discussion of that or of other newspaper statements pertaining to him. General Miles insisted that the question at issue after all was not one of this or that interview, but whether bad food was furnished the army.

Temple to Be Delivered.

Washington, Feb. 4.—The United States ambassador to Mexico, Mr. Powell Clayton, has notified the state department that the Mexican government has consented to grant the application of the United States authorities for the delivery to them under extradition proceedings of James Temple, the American railroad man who is now held under arrest in Mexico for killing a Mexican on the American side of the border in Arizona.

Preparing Their Report.

Washington, Feb. 4.—The war investigating commission continued the preparation of the report to the president behind closed doors. No reply has been received to the telegram addressed by the commission to James Farnan at Chester, Pa., requesting him to come here for the purpose of testifying as to the alleged embalming of beef for the army.

Relief Bills Held Off.

Washington, Feb. 4.—Most of the time of the house during the three hours' session was consumed in filibustering against relief bills on the private calendar. The filibuster was finally successful and the house adjourned without taking up the bill. The conference report on the diplomatic appropriation bill was adopted.

Spanish Company to Get It.

Washington, Feb. 4.—While no official award has been made of the bid for the repatriation of the Spanish prisoners in the Philippines, it has been practically decided to give the contract to the Companie Transatlantique, otherwise known as the Spanish Transportation company.

More Battleships.

Washington, Feb. 4.—The naval committee of the house reached the important question of new battleships and cruisers to be provided in the naval appropriation bill. Three new battleships were informally agreed upon, but there exists a difference as to the number of cruisers.

Soldiers to Be Preferred.

Washington, Feb. 4.—The house committee on civil service reported favorably a bill extending to all soldiers and sailors and marines who served in the civil war, a preference in the matter of appointments in the civil service.

Treasury Statement.

Washington, Feb. 4.—The statement of the condition of the treasury shows: Available cash balance, $274,776,699; gold reserve, $226,992,114.

Scrofula, a Vile Inheritance.

Scrofula is the most obstinate of blood troubles, and is often the result of an inherited taint in the blood. S. S. S. is the only remedy which goes deep enough to reach Scrofula; it forces out every trace of the disease, and cures the worst cases.

My son, Charlie, was afflicted from infancy with Scrofula, and he suffered so that it was impossible to dress him for three years. His head and body were a mass of sores, and his eyesight also became affected. No treatment was spared that we thought would relieve him, but he grew worse until his condition was indeed pitiable. I had almost despaired of his ever being cured, when by the advice of a friend we gave him S. S. S. (Swift's Specific). A decided improvement was the result, and after he had taken a dozen bottles no one who knew of his former dreadful condition would have recognized him. All the sores on his body have healed, his skin is perfectly clear and smooth, and he has been restored to perfect health.

For real blood troubles it is a waste of time to expect a cure from the doctors. Blood diseases are beyond their skill. Swift's Specific,

S. S. S. For the Blood reaches all deep-seated cases which other remedies have no effect upon. It is the only blood remedy guaranteed purely vegetable, and contains no poison, mercury, or other mineral.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars, for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Daily Times Went Up in a Balloon Today.

Willie Harris Found the Paper and Was Given a Ticket to the Uncle Josh Spruceby Show.

As usual, The Daily Times leads 'em all, and soars higher and higher into the clouds as it continues to do in the estimation of the people. Such was the case this noon, when a copy of the Daily Times was carried up by the balloonist, the same to be dropped from the clouds to be picked up by the boys who were giving chase. The one who first touched it was to be rewarded with a ticket to the "Uncle Josh Spruceby show at the opera house next Tuesday night. An army of men, women and children were in the chase to catch sight of the favorite daily. The "Uncle Josh Spruceby show" is one of the best of its kind on the road and the Times hopes young Harris will have a pleasant evening. The fortunate boy was Willie Harris, of East Front street, son of Evan Harris. As the balloon was sailing over North Waller and Second streets, at a height of possibly two thousand feet, the paper was dropped, lighting near the residence of Andrew Drennen, on upper Mill street.

The copy was returned to this office and the boy will enjoy the entertainment at the opera house equally as well as the people enjoy reading the paper.

DON'T LIKE IT.

Objection Made to Prof. Cassell Taking a Dog Up With His Balloon.

A great many people of the city object to Prof. Cassell, the balloon man, taking a dog up with him and sending the animal down with a parachute. They tried this morning to stop it but did not succeed. Dr. Mary Cotton telephoned Mayor Glidden asking him to interfere, but the Mayor decided he had no authority to stop the performance.

Too Much Morphine.

Wm. Andres, who lives on North Waller street, near the Eureka hotel, has been sick with the grip. Last night he was given morphine to relieve the pain. He took too much of the stuff and was in bad shape for several hours, but today he is feeling better.

Very Sick.

"Hank" D. Burton is reported very sick at the infirmary. At last reports he was resting easier, but is a very sick man.

ALL OVER.

David Armstrong Passed Away in Jackson Today.

He Had Been Sick for Over Three Months, and Was Unconscious for Several Days Before End Came.

By Telegraph to THE TIMES.

Jackson, O., Feb. 4.—Hon. David Armstrong died this morning about nine o'clock, after an illness covering a period of three months. For many days he had been unconscious.

Mr. Armstrong was prominent in Jackson county, being identified with one of the city's banks. He was also a large stockholder in various companies operating coal mines in Jackson county.

Mr. Armstrong was appointed receiver of the Fidelity National bank, of Cincinnati, in 1892, and wound up the affairs of that bank in a highly creditable manner. Later he was appointed receiver of the Farmers' National bank of Portsmouth.

(Mr. Armstrong has many friends here who regret to hear of his death. He was a splendid gentleman, and by industry and sagacity had won an enviable place in the world.—Ed. Times.)

The Sunday School Institute.

The Portsmouth Sunday school institute meets tomorrow afternoon in All Saints church at 3 o'clock, standard time. The following is the program:

"Child Religion"—Mrs. Ricker, Song, "We Are Little Pilgrims"—Addie Merrill.

"Primary Sunday School Instruction"—Miss Mary E. Hucheson, of Columbus.

Miss Hucheson will teach the parable of the tower at the primary children of all the Sunday schools of Portsmouth. Every child should be present, and no one should fail to witness this work.

Death of a Former Resident.

Mrs. Martha Davis, of East Fourth street, is in Cincinnati. She was called there by the death of her brother, Chas. B. Lewis, a former Portsmouth resident, who has been living at Westwood for a number of years.

A Beautiful Trimmer.

Miss Dollie McCall severed her connection today with the millinery department of G. W. Anderson & Sons. She will leave the last of this month for Cleveland to enter upon her duties as trimmer in a large millinery store.

REGENT

GREAT REMOVAL SALE.

We will move our stock of goods at 603 Chillicothe Street, about March 1st, to the Kendall Block, corner Seventh and Chillicothe Streets. In order to save the work and expense of moving the greater part of the stock we have made reductions sufficient that ought to enable us to close the greater part of the stock out during this month. Our January Mark-Down Sale was the largest we ever had in the same month before. Our February sale ought to be even larger, because of the greater reductions made on a good many goods. This sale will afford the public a great opportunity to buy shoes, and if you are wide awake you will take advantage of it. Note the change in prices:
